

Biography
Carrie Andrews

As a resident of Brampton for over 40 years, alumni of Bramalea Secondary School and mother of three Peel District School Board grads, Carrie Andrews is very familiar with the world of public education. On Dec. 3, 2018, she entered her second term as trustee of Brampton Wards 7 and 8.

Carrie has a long history of volunteering within Peel Region. She volunteered with the Peel board for 13 years receiving the board's Award of Excellence and Award of Distinction. She also volunteered for 10 years with Peel Children's Aid Society, receiving the society's highest recognition, the Peel Children's Aid Honour Roll. She was also honoured to receive the Ontario Volunteer Service Award.

In her second term as trustee, she is committed to continue advocating for mental health and well-being for all students, welcoming and safe school environments, improved busing, anti-bullying, innovative programming, special education programs, newcomer support, community partnerships, parent involvement, 21st-century teaching techniques, and equity and respect for all students, teachers and support staff.
