Harkirat Singh

Utilizing his extensive education and rich experience in community organizing, Harkirat Singh looks forward to promoting community involvement and student leadership in his role as trustee of Wards 9 and 10 in Brampton. He began his first four-year term as trustee on Dec. 1, 2014.

Harkirat believes that schools, educators, support staff, and public education are critical to developing and nurturing young people. He cares about students and their education, and is passionate about working with all community stakeholders to inspire leaders of tomorrow. He is also invested in social justice and grassroots issues, and enjoys hearing new perspectives on improving communities, and advocating for social change.

Harkirat holds a Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy and Economics, with a minor in Political Science from the University of Toronto at Scarborough. He also completed a Master of Science degree in Economics from the London Metropolitan Business School and holds a Masters of Business Administration from the Schulich School of Business. During his time at the Schulich School of Business, Harkirat received the Dean's entrance scholarship for academic achievement and placed third at the Dean's Cup Case Competition. He was also a board member of the Institute of Research in Innovation and Sustainability (IRIS) and student-run organization Net Impact.

Harkirat is an active community volunteer and a college professor at Lambton College in Toronto.
